Inspector Observations: Droppings on the warehouse floor were observed. No rodent droppings or insects observed near the food or beverage. Food and beverage are not stored in the warehouse. According to the manager the pest control company serviced yesterday and also a mouse was caught in the warehouse yesterday. According to the manager they will clean up the droppings from the mouse caught yesterday and would like a reinspection. The manager would like to request a reinspection tomorrow. [CA] Continue to not store food or beverage in the warehouse. A dead cockroach was observed in front of the restroom hallway. The dead roach was cleaned up by the employee. Keep all food and beverage protected and continue to eliminate the cockroaches and rodents from inside of the facility. The next reinspection will be a chargeable inspection. Thoroughly clean and sanitize.

Overall Comments:

Reinspection due to the droppings and dead roach observed during the last inspection. The next reinspection will be a chargeable inspection.

When required to determine compliance, a single reinspection will be conducted without additional charge. If subsequent reinspections are required, an hourly fee (minimum one hour) at the current rate approved by the Board of Supervisors will be assessed for each and every reinspection until the necessary changes or corrections are made. Unless otherwise noted by the inspector, all violations are to be corrected no later than 6/11/2025. Any major change in menu or any change in ownership must have prior approval by this Department. This may require structural and/or equipment changes or remodeling to accommodate new operations.
